| (b) In the case of separation of a Board representative of a member institution from the member institution, the representative shall cease to be a Board member. A transition period not exceeding 30 days may be given by the Chair or Vice-Chair to facilitate smooth handover. | Amended on 7 September 2016 |

- 18.11 Dismissal
In the case of gross misconduct, a Board member may be removed by decision of the AFI Board of Directors by at least two-thirds majority vote of the Board members present. Gross misconduct includes breach of duty, dishonesty, and conduct likely to bring AFI into disrepute.
- 18.12 Frequency of Meetings
(a) Meetings of the AFI Board of Directors shall be held at least three times a year. Special Meetings may be called on an ad-hoc basis by the Secretary of the AFI Board of Directors. Where an urgent matter requiring Board attention arises and the AFI Board of Directors is unable to meet in a formal meeting, the AFI Board of Directors may vote on a specific issue on circulation basis without calling a meeting of the AFI Board of Directors. Amended on 3 September 2024
(b) Two Meetings of the AFI Board of Directors shall be attended in person, with one of these during the annual Global Policy Forum and the other at another venue. The third Meeting and any Special Meetings may be held via video conferences and/or conference calls. Amended on 3 September 2024
- 18.13 Notice of Meetings and Communications
Meetings of the AFI Board of Directors shall be called by written notice of the Secretary no less than 45 days before the meeting date. The date, time, and place (if any) of such meetings will be determined by the Secretary in consultation with the AFI Board members. The Secretary shall inform the AFI Board members of the meeting agenda and circulate related documentation at least 14 days prior to the scheduled date of the meeting. Special Meetings may be called with shorter notice. Amended on 3 September 2024
- 18.14 Meeting Participation
(a) AFI Board members shall make every effort to attend all meetings. An AFI Board member who cannot attend a meeting may appoint an alternate delegate in accordance with Article 18.7 to represent the member and vote on behalf of the AFI Board member in a meeting.
(b) Participation at the Annual General Meeting and Global Policy Forum is mandatory and only in exceptional circumstances may an AFI Board member be represented by the alternate qualified substitute at the Annual General Meeting and Global Policy Forum. Amended on 3 September 2024
(c) An AFI Board member who misses three consecutive General and Special Meetings may have their Board membership reconsidered by the AFI Board of Directors.
- 18.15 Quorum of Meetings
No business shall be transacted at meetings of the AFI Board of Directors unless a quorum is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Save as otherwise provided in these Articles, two thirds of all the voting AFI Board Members shall be a quorum. Amended on 3 September 2024
- 18.16 Voting
(a) Decisions of the AFI Board of Directors are generally passed by simple majority vote of AFI Board of Directors present and voting, unless otherwise provided by any specific Article. Amended on 3 September 2024
(b) Decisions on the adjustment of membership fees, amendments to AFI's Articles of Association, and the dismissal of an AFI Member institution require at least two-thirds majority vote of AFI Board Members present and voting.

- (c) In the event of an equality of vote, the Chair of the AFI Board of Directors shall have a casting vote to resolve any outstanding matter.
- (d) For avoidance of doubt, the term “present and voting” in this Article 18 means, of those AFI Board members participating in the meeting of AFI Board of Directors at which voting occurs, being present at the time of voting and casting either an affirmative or negative vote, and in determining the majority of those AFI Board members present and voting for a particular business, an AFI Board member who does not express any vote shall be deemed to be abstaining from voting on that particular business and as such shall not be counted towards the total number of votes for that particular business.

18.17 Record of Meetings

Decisions, advice, and recommendations made in a meeting of the AFI Board of Directors shall be recorded and meeting minutes shall be distributed to all Board members. The minutes of an AFI Board of Directors meeting shall be approved by the AFI Board of Directors at the following meeting and retained in the permanent records of AFI.

Article 19: AFI Committees

19.1 Role and Composition

- (a) Committees shall provide specialized support to the AFI Board of Directors.
- (b) Committees are either permanent, or temporary (established for a two-year period or less).
- (c) The following Permanent Committees can only be dissolved by modification of AFI’s Articles of Association:
 - (i) the Budget and Finance Committee;
 - (ii) the Audit Committee;
 - (iii) the Global Standards and Policy Committee;
 - (iv) the Gender Inclusive Finance Committee; and
 - (v) the Investment Committee.
- (d) Other permanent Committees can be similarly established and dissolved by modification of the Articles of Association.
- (e) Temporary Committees can be established and dissolved by decision of the AFI Board of Directors and will operate for a fixed duration to achieve a predefined set of objectives.
- (f) The AFI Board of Directors shall approve members to serve on any temporary Committee.
- (g) Each Committee shall consist of five to seven members. The CEO shall nominate an appropriate AFI Management Unit representative to serve as the Secretary of a Committee.
- (h) A Committee may invite external parties, with relevant expertise to attend its Committee meeting when it is required but such external parties are not eligible to vote on any matter called to a vote.

*Amended on 3

19.5 Nomination to the AFI Committee

- (a) A Principal Member is entitled to nominate itself or another Principal Member to any AFI Committee when there is vacancy.
- (b) The AFI Board of Directors will evaluate nominations taking into account:
 - (i) Eligibility, qualification, and level of AFI engagement of the nominated Principal Member;
 - (ii) The need to strive for balanced economic, geographical and gender representation of AFI Members on the AFI Committee; and
 - (iii) No region is represented by more than two AFI Committee Members (a region refers to the grouping of member institutions into a common geographical area as may be determined by the AFI Board of Directors from time to time; currently, this includes but is not limited to Eastern Europe and Central Asia, Latin America and the Caribbean, Sub-Saharan Africa, North Africa and the Middle East, Asia, and the Pacific).
- (c) The nominated Principal Member should then propose a delegate to represent the institution and who meets the following qualifications:
 - (i) Commitment to AFI's vision and values;
 - (ii) Demonstrated historical or emerging leadership in the AFI network;
 - (iii) Substantial knowledge/experience in and contributions to the field of financial inclusion and/or at least one AFI policy area;
 - (iv) Ability to dedicate substantial time and effort to support AFI's mission as well as the mandate of the Committee;
 - (v) No potential conflict of interest with his/her other ongoing activities or commitments; and
 - (vi) Leadership position in the Principal Member institution.

*Amended on 5

19.6 Appointment and Term

- (a) Any new permanent Committee members will be proposed by the AFI Board of Directors to the Membership Council during the Annual General Meeting. Following approval by the AFI Membership Council, the new AFI

Committee members will commence their roles at the conclusion of the corresponding Global Policy Forum.

- (b) Each AFI Committee member will be appointed for a two-year term.
- (c) For permanent Committees, a Principal Member is eligible to serve on the same Committee for a maximum of two consecutive two-year terms. Thereafter, at least one full term of two years shall pass before the Principal Member is eligible to serve again on the same Committee. AFI permanent Committees will strive to retain at least half of its members in office to ensure continuity.
- (d) In the event of an unexpected vacancy (e.g. as a result of the delegate's death, resignation or dismissal), the AFI Board of Directors shall appoint a new Committee member. The member institution from which a vacancy arises may nominate a replacement to be considered alongside candidate similarly nominated.

19.7 Chair and Vice-Chair of the AFI Committee

- (a) Committee members shall elect a Chair as well as a Vice-Chair from within the group by simple majority with at least two thirds of all Committee members present. For permanent Committees, at the end of the first two-year period, the Vice-Chair shall serve as the Chair for the following period to ensure continuity. A new Vice-Chair shall be elected by the Committee with each rotation of a new Chair.
- (b) The role of the Chair is to facilitate discussions and preside over meetings of the Committee. The Vice-Chair will facilitate discussions and preside over meetings in the absence of the Chair.

19.8 Resignation

- (a) A Committee member as an individual may resign by sending written or electronic notice to the Chair of the Committee (and in the case of the Chair of the Committee, the Vice-Chair). Prior written notice at least 30 days in advance should be given to facilitate a smooth transition, unless a shorter time is agreed with the AFI Board of Directors.
- (b) In the event of separation of a Committee member from a member institution, the member shall cease to be Committee member and the AFI Board of Directors may appoint a replacement.
